

LEE LARD

Peter Kay Tribute

It is no secret that over the past 3 years, Lee Lard has become one of the most successful comedy acts in the UK with his outstanding tribute to Bolton's funny man 'Peter Kay'.

With an uncanny resemblance to Peter and his own natural comic talent, Lee has gained a popularity that most comedians can only dream of. From Leeds to London, Manchester to Majorca, Lee's unique one-hour comedy extravaganza is a 'sell-out' wherever he goes.

Delivering his own hilarious 'Peter Kay' style of stand-up, Lee appeals to audiences of all ages. Well known catch phrases such as 'Garlic Bread' and 'Cheese Cake' obviously make an appearance during the show, as does 'Brian Potter' from 'Phoenix Nights' and 'Max' from 'Max and Paddy's Road to Nowhere'. Yes... complete with wheel chair and attitude, Lee brings the popular Brian Potter character to the stage where no-one escapes his sharp tongue and quick wit!!

You may also recall seeing Lee on the 'Is this the way to Amarillo?' DVD for Comic Relief, when he appeared alongside Peter Kay and Tony Christie.

Lee Lard - Peter Kay Tribute is a fully self contained show with a running time of 1 hour plus encores. Complete with costume changes and props, it is guaranteed to satisfy even the most avid of Peter Kay Fans!
